

HUMAN RIGHTS TRIBUNAL OF ONTARIO

BETWEEN:

Andy Faulkner

Applicant

-and-

Township of Huron-Kinloss

Respondent

DECISION

Adjudicator: Holly Gomes
Date: August 24, 2023
File Number: 2021-47181-I
Citation: 2023 HRTO 1290
Indexed as: Faulkner v. Township of Huron-Kinloss

[1] The applicant filed an Application alleging that the respondent violated the Human Rights Code, R.S.O. 1990, c. H.19, as amended.

[2] On January 16, 2023, the Tribunal issued a Notice of Intent to Dismiss the Application (the "Notice") on the basis that the Application appeared to be outside of the Tribunal's jurisdiction.

[3] The Tribunal directed the applicant to file written submissions in response to the issues identified in the Notice by no later than February 15, 2023.

[4] The Tribunal also warned the applicant that failing to respond to the Notice by the required deadline would result in the Tribunal dismissing the Application as abandoned.

[5] The Tribunal sent the Notice to the applicant by email to the email address that the applicant provided to the Tribunal and the email was not returned to the Tribunal as undeliverable. For these reasons, I am satisfied that the applicant received the Notice.

[6] The applicant has not contacted the Tribunal nor provided the required submissions and the time for doing so has now passed.

[7] In these circumstances, I find that the applicant has abandoned their Application.

ORDER

[8] For the reasons set out above, the Application is dismissed.

Dated at Toronto, this 24th day of August, 2023.
