

Arran-Elderslie

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- Arran-Elderslie provided $3,560,147 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 234 childcare spots for an investment of $1,818,302.
- Responded to 641 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $1,258,234.
- Maintained 137 KMs of road for an investment of $3,685,068.
- Welcomed 1,997 active library users for an investment of $419,717.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 42 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $1,172,292.

- Provided 67 units of social housing for investment of $1,293,801.
- Responded to 27 planning inquiries for an investment of $144,366.
- Capital investments totaling $6,631,771 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested in Arran-Elderslie. $20M

Brockton

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- Brockton provided $5,744,050 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 185 childcare spots for an investment of $1,437,546.
- Responded to 1,104 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $2,167,068.
- Maintained 109 KMs of road for an investment of $2,931,915.
- Welcomed 2,465 active library users for an investment of $518,078.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 122 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $3,405,231.

- Provided 102 units of social housing for investment of $1,969,677.
- Responded to 44 planning inquiries for an investment of $235,264.
- Capital investments totaling $2,135,088. (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested $19.69M in Brockton.

Huron-Kinloss

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- Huron-Kinloss provided $6,924,465 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 157 childcare spots for an investment of $1,219,972.
- Responded to 437 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $857,798.
- Maintained 93 KMs of road for an investment of $2,501,542.
- Welcomed 909 active library users for an investment of $191,048.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 33 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $921,087.

- Provided 66 units of social housing for investment of $1,274,491.
- Responded to 46 planning inquiries for an investment of $245,958.
- Capital investments totaling $564,763 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested $12.2M in Huron-Kinloss.

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- Kincardine provided $11,273,887 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 457 childcare spots for an investment of $3,551,128.
- Responded to 1,438 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $2,822,685.
- Maintained 76 KMs of road for an investment of $2,044,271.
- Welcomed 3,900 active library users for an investment of $819,677.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 85 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $2,372,497.

- Provided 148 units of social housing for investment of $2,857,949.
- Responded to 85 planning inquiries for an investment of $454,487.
- Capital investments totaling $1,064,337 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested $23.1M in Kincardine.

Northern Bruce Peninsula

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- Northern Bruce Peninsula provided $8,278,197 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 119 childcare spots for an investment of $924,692.
- Responded to 579 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $1,136,533.
- Maintained 32 KMs of road for an investment of $860,746.
- Welcomed 1,566 active library users for an investment of $329,132.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 26 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $725,705.

- Provided 14 units of social housing for investment of $270,346.
- Responded to 58 planning inquiries for an investment of $310,121.
- Capital investments totaling $1,276,762 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested $11.35M in Northern Bruce Peninsula.

Saugeen Shores

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- Saugeen Shores provided $14,346,525 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 690 childcare spots for an investment of $5,361,659.
- Responded to 1,797 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $3,527,375.
- Maintained 41 KMs of road for an investment of $1,102,831.
- Welcomed 5,918 active library users for an investment of $1,243,807.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 131 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $3,656,436.

- Provided 174 units of social housing for investment of $3,360,021.
- Responded to 79 planning inquiries for an investment of $422,406.
- Capital investments totaling $9,137,731 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested $40.8M in Saugeen Shores.

South Bruce

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- South Bruce provided $3,445,694 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 49 childcare spots for an investment of $380,755.
- Responded to 234 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $459,324.
- Maintained 92 KMs of road for an investment of $2,474,644.
- Welcomed 1,129 active library users for an investment of $237,286.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 32 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $893,175.

- Provided 45 units of social housing for investment of $868,971.
- Responded to 46 planning inquiries for an investment of $245,958.
- Capital investments totaling $5,720,199 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested $14M in South Bruce.

South Bruce Peninsula

Bruce County provides services to each of our local communities. These services are provided with a high degree of efficiency and quality, in comparison to like Counties. In fact, we have the second lowest cost of delivery.

The following highlights our investments in your community in 2023.

- South Bruce Peninsula provided $9,409,893 in tax revenue to Bruce County.
- Provided 184 childcare spots for an investment of $1,429,776.
- Responded to 1,751 calls for paramedic services for a total investment of $3,437,080.
- Maintained 95 KMs of road for an investment of $2,555,339.
- Welcomed 3,441 active library users for an investment of $723,207.
- Provided life stabilization supports to 95 Ontario Works clients for an investment of $2,651,614.

- Provided 82 units of social housing for investment of $1,583,458.
- Responded to 86 planning inquiries for an investment of $459,834.
- Capital investments totaling $1,133,289 (e.g., roads, housing and more).
- Residents, businesses and families benefit from Long-Term Care, Economic Development and Museum services across the County, as well as funding for public health, creating value for all our communities.
- We are greater than the sum of our parts. For example, by partnering as a County, we can provide roads that give access to all local communities. We have also built a strong Bruce County brand that attracts business and people to the region.
- In 2023, we invested in South Bruce Peninsula.

$22.2M

