The Human Services Kincardine Hub is co-located with the Kincardine Housing Build, a major initiative undertaken to provide 35 additional units of community housing in a new purpose-built development.

Thank you for continuing to partner with Bruce County in the delivery of many valuable services and supports to our community. To learn more about how we enhance the quality of life for individuals, families and communities you'll find information at our website: Human Services | Bruce County Welcomes You.
