Flags to be Lowered to Honour Indigenous Children

Bruce County, ON - Flags at Bruce County facilities will be lowered for July 1 to honour and pay respect to the Indigenous children being discovered at residential schools, their families, and their communities.

The Bruce County municipalities of Arran-Elderslie, Brockton, South Bruce, Huron-Kinloss, Kincardine, Saugeen Shores, South Bruce Peninsula, and Northern Bruce Peninsula continue to stand united in expressing the deepest of condolences to Indigenous families and communities in the Bruce County region and across Canada.

"Bruce County acknowledges the devastating legacy that residential schools has had on almost every Indigenous family," said Bruce County Warden Janice Jackson, "As a community, we must stand together to acknowledge these truths of the past and present, and support reconciliation efforts."

As we reflect, learn, and listen, may we honour the lives of these children and never forget their stories.
