The CAO reported that Mark McElroy, Landfill Attendant has resigned and the recruitment process will begin to fill the position.

Deputy Mayor Murray questioned the County of Bruce project on affordable housing and if there were any comments regarding the Landlord Tenant Act. Mayor Twolan explained the "Affordable Housing 101" project was to assist developers with basic information on getting started with building affordable units. Mayor Twolan explained the cost of materials and labour makes it difficult for developers to construct affordable units.

Council directed the Clerk to request a delegation at the AMO conference with the Minister of Housing to explain the concerns landlords have with the Act which make them hesitant to rent out vacant properties and if there is a way to find common ground.
